Minister's Letter - from me to you

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

Romans 12:1

That's the Covenant Service over for another year, then. We've sung the hymn, made our commitment, shared in communion – and then it's back to life as normal... Whatever that means for each of us.

In this year's Covenant sermon, I referred to marriage as one of the other events in our lives in which we make an open-ended commitment, without knowing exactly what it might entail. One church member spoke to me afterwards about the renewal of marriage vows. In one sense, they said, that should never be needed, because the promise has been made, and it still stands. But for some people, it can be a powerful and important step to take. And, as this person commented, "We need to be reminded, because we forget."

The Covenant Service, that most Methodist of traditions, has always been about commitment to following Christ, never to the Methodist Church. The fact remains, however, that most people attending such services are Methodist members, or regularly involved in the life of the Methodist Church. How long is it since you made the commitment to become a member? Do you remember why you did so – and do those reasons still stand? If you regularly worship with us but are not a member, is that a conscious decision you have made (and do those reasons still stand), or is membership something that you have never been invited to consider?

I am contemplating running a short series of meetings in the spring/early summer, perhaps three sessions, to talk about what it means to be a follower of Jesus, to belong to a church, and to be a Methodist member. These would be open to everyone – longstanding members, adherents who are not members, people who are new to faith, those with longstanding faith who like to explore more deeply, those who feel they are in a rut. The meetings would most likely be on a Thursday evening (nice and warm, and light until 9pm).

For those who are not members, it would give you a clearer idea of what membership means and enable you to make a decision about whether it is for you, or not. It also conveniently fulfils the obligation of the Church Council to arrange preparation classes for candidates for membership, so that they are aware of the obligations they are taking on. By the way – did you know that new members have to be approved by the Church Council?

For those who are members, it is a way of fulfilling the promises you made, however long ago. The wording has changed over the years, but the general thrust is the same. The 1998 Methodist Worship Book service asks you to “commit yourself to the Christian life of worship and service and be open to the renewing power of God.” The 1975 book asks, “Will you obey Christ and serve him in the Church and in the world?” As for those of you who became members before 1975 – I don’t have a copy of the book that was in use then. Can you remember what you were asked to promise? “We need to be reminded, because we forget.”

In the contemporary Covenant Service, we have said “I willingly offer all I have and am to serve you, as and where you choose.” Would you like to join together with others to explore what that means? Do let me know if you are interested, so I can tailor the plans accordingly. Meanwhile – if Thursday evenings are not convenient, or if you are not comfortable with the idea of talking about faith in front of others – I am always available to talk with you, pray with you, and listen to you about your beliefs, and doubts, and challenges. Give me a call, I will be delighted to speak with you about the things of God.

Every blessing,
Barbara

Our thoughts and prayers go to them and their families -

Please feel free to take one to someone you know, who may be housebound, unwell, or just appreciative of your visit.

No need to ask!

Greetings and thanks from Ruth Woodroffe - she writes

“Thank you to all who have sent me New Home good wishes – they must be doing some good as I have had a friendly welcome all round. Most boxes are unpacked, others never will be (!) but I am running out of spaces to put those. The Methodist Church in Totnes has a smaller congregation than Warwick, I have enjoyed good services there, and been offered a Pastoral visitor. I have attended the service for Christian Unity at my local C of E where I met other Methodists. There was meditation, discussion and prayer - and tea and cake of course!
I am finding my way by ‘Bob the Bus’ and by car, Totnes is on a steep hill and parking is worse than Warwick! I miss Warwick but think I shall eventually start to feel more at home here and it is good to see more of my daughter Victoria and the family.”

Love from Ruth

Northgate Choir

2018 was not an easy year for the Choir for various reasons. However it ended on a high note with our contribution to the Carol Service which, despite losing 3 valued members at the last minute to illness, was very favourably received. We were well schooled by Trevor Barr, and I am personally so grateful to him for his expertise and the noticeable difference he has made. Another thank you is to the ladies of our Choir who sang so well at a Carol Service for the W.I. held in our Church in early December. Cynthia and I organised the service and our grateful thanks go to Julie and Trevor for their help and of course to the ladies for giving up their time, making it such a success. We sang an Introit at each of the special services with a visiting preacher during this Celebration Year, and now look forward to more challenges this year! It goes without saying that we always welcome anyone wishing to join the Choir.

CHURCHES TOGETHER EVENTS AND NEWS

We had an inspiring United Service on Sunday 20th January at All Saints. Afterwards a collection was taken that amounted to £187.66 for the Christian Aid appeal for those affected by the Tsunami in Indonesia.

This was chosen as the service was prepared by Christians in Indonesia before the recent disaster. They based it on Deuteronomy 16: 18-20. "Justice and only Justice you shall pursue."

All Saints will send it directly to our local Christian Aid agent, Mike Porter.

In our weakness, O Lord,
be to us a never-failing strength;
in our sinfulness, pardoning love;
in our need, all-sufficient grace;
and in our anxiety, both stillness and rest.
Amen.

Warwick District Foodbank

The foodbank is an outreach and relief project run by 15 of the Churches across Warwick, Kenilworth and Leamington.

Our Church is an enthusiastic member of the group of 15 churches.

With 7 distribution sites across the 3 towns and a further 3 warehouse sites it has grown into a significant enterprise distributing over 42 tonnes of food a year. To run this mission project we have an army of volunteers led by some part time paid staff. Finding the money to pay the staff and cover other expenditure is a continuing struggle so we are looking to develop our regular income stream.

Now I would like to make an appeal for people to help us develop this by entering into a monthly financial donation to support Gods work amongst the local poor. A standing order form can be printed from the foodbank website www.warwickdistrict.foodbank.org.uk or you can ask David Witham for one.

Want to know what items are needed?

Please see the notice on the notice-board which lists all that is urgently required by Foodbank.

Your generosity is much appreciated - thank you.

For further details please see Christine Fell or David Witham

Q-Day 29th March!

What's special about Friday 29th March? Nothing to do with Bit or Article 50. You'll be able to take a break from all that and come to Northgate church where you can feast your eyes on lots of original hand-crafted quilts by quilting and singing friends Jenny Shufflebotham and Barbara Meddoms. If you came to the Quilt Show at Northgate in 2013 you will have an idea what to expect, most of those are keeping people cosy on both sides of the Atlantic now, this is a completely new show. It's amazing how many quilts two people can make in five years. Proceeds after staging expenses to Myton Hospice.

If you must stay at home glued to the telly for news of last-minute deals don't despair, they have stitched up a fully implemented backstop! The period of the exhibition is extended into Saturday 30th March.

Open both days 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. the exhibition is staged in the church and tea and coffee will be available in the hall. Jenny and Barbara will be on hand to answer questions on all things quilt related and Barbara is giving an illustrated talk on the craft and social history of quilting, at the Guild meeting on Wednesday 6th March at 7:30 p.m., with the intriguing title 'tis a Foolish Thing.

Everyone is welcome whether regular or occasional one-off attenders at Guild.

Prayer Corner

Lord, we ask you to open our eyes that we may value and appreciate all people,
recognising what we have in common rather than focusing on what our differences might be.
Inspire us to distinguish between what is important and what is not,
and open our minds and hearts
that we may always be people of good will
who bring life and joy to others.
Amen.
